Gregory Collier to participate in the CBCF Legislative Conference 2011

(West Palm Beach – July 14, 2011) - Gregory Collier, President and Chief Investment Strategist of West Palm Beach, FL - based, Collier Capital Advisors, will participate in the Congressional Black Caucus Foundation, Inc. 2011 Legislative Conference. The Annual Legislative Conference will be held September 21 - 24, 2011, in Washington, D.C.

“My goal is for all Americans to participate in the capital markets, and navigate the markets with knowledge, skill, and appropriate risk management. My attendance at the CBCF Annual Legislative Conference will help further this goal.”

Per the CBCF, “The Annual Legislative Conference (ALC) is the premier conference on policy issues impacting African Americans. ALC provides an outlet to highlight the mission of CBCF – to develop leaders, to inform policy and to educate the public. It also provides more than 85 forums to address the critical challenges facing the African-American community. Forums, which are categorized into numerous session tracks to make them easy to find, present high level, thought-provoking, engaging and useful information. Also offered during the four-day event are free health screenings, a job fair, interactive financial sessions, networking and cultural activities.”

Collier Capital Advisors serves the needs of businesses, institutional investors, and private clients in the areas of wealth management, customized market analysis, idea generation, and risk management.
