Gregory Collier forms Collier Capital Advisors

(West Palm Beach – May 20, 2009) - Gregory Collier has formed Collier Capital Advisors LLC, and will serve as its President and Chief Investment Strategist.

“Having worked on Wall Street for nearly 20 years and becoming a serious investor on a personal level, I want to help people become better investors.”

Collier Capital Advisors will serve the needs of businesses, institutional investors, and private clients in the areas of wealth management, customized market analysis, idea generation, and risk management.

“My goal is to help all Americans participate in the capital markets, and navigate the markets with knowledge, skill, and appropriate risk management. Though my clients will include high net-worth individuals, I will also serve middle and working class Americans. In addition, Collier Capital Advisors will provide pro bono services to help people and organizations in need.”
